Summary HB 1322 PN 2453

This legislation amends the Public Welfare Code regarding identification and proof of residency for general assistance recipients. General assistance applicants would be required to establish they are not receiving assistance in any other states. They would also be required to disclose all states in which they have resided and collected any form of public assistance in the last five years.

If a general assistance applicant discloses that a form of public assistance has been collected in another state, the Commonwealth shall notify such state of the change of residence of the general assistant applicant.

Effective Date

This act shall take effect in 60 days.
