OFFICE OF THE
SECRETARY OF HUMAN SERVICES

THE GOVERNOR

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

RECEIVED AND REFERRED
OCT 16 2017

SECRETARY OF HUMAN SERVICES

October 12, 2017

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate, Teresa Miller, 4394 Saint Andrews Way, Harrisburg 17112, Dauphin County, Fifteenth Senatorial District, for appointment as Secretary of Human Services, to serve until the third Tuesday of January 2019 and until her successor is appointed and qualified, vice the Honorable Ted Dallas, Philadelphia, resigned.

TOM WOLF
Governor

Secretary of Human Services

Teresa D. Miller assumed duties as acting secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services on August 21, 2017. Previously, Miller served as Pennsylvania's insurance commissioner since January 2015, where she worked on a range of issues, including the administration's top priorities – fighting the heroin and opioid epidemic and helping seniors.

Under her leadership, Miller made it clear that one of her top priorities at the Insurance Department was enforcing mental health parity laws, ensuring consumers have access to the mental health and substance use disorder treatments they need.

Teresa has been a leader in the Wolf Administration's efforts to protect seniors. Her work to ensure seniors in Western Pennsylvania were protected and would not lose access to their doctors helped prevent disruption in care for 180,000 by ensuring UPMC providers continued participation in Highmark's Medicare networks through the end of the consent decrees, which expire in 2019.

In 2017, Teresa was named chair of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Senior Issues Task Force. Also at the NAIC, Teresa has been a leader in taking on the current challenges of the long term care insurance markets. At her request, the NAIC created the Long Term Care Innovation Subgroup, which she chaired, to work to increase long-term care funding options for consumers, including increasing the number of affordable asset protection options available.

Prior to coming to Pennsylvania, Miller served as acting director of the State Exchanges Group, the Oversight Group, and the Insurance Programs Group in the federal government's Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

Before going to Washington, Miller worked in Oregon where she fought for state adoption of mental health parity legislation, representing drug and alcohol treatment providers, social workers, the Arc of Oregon and other advocates for people with disabilities. Then, as the insurance regulator in Oregon, she worked to ensure consumers received the benefits of that law.

Miller received her J.D. from Willamette University College of Law, and her B.A., magna cum laude, from Pacific Lutheran University.
