

Melissa Bova
Government Affairs Representative

In 2011, Melissa Bova joined the Pennsylvania Restaurant & Lodging Association (PRLA) as its government affairs representative. She works closely with PRLA's members and leadership to identify the association's legislative priorities at the local, state and federal levels, as well as advocate on behalf of PRLA's members and the hospitality industry. She also handles all member inquiries relating to legislation and regulations.

Before joining the PRLA, Melissa was the communications director for the Pennsylvania Beer Alliance, a trade association representing malt and brewed beverage distributors across the Commonwealth. Melissa also previously worked at a statewide lobbying firm that represents more than 60 clients, varying from Fortune 500 corporations to non-profit organizations.

Melissa is a 2007 graduate of Gettysburg College with a B.A. in political science
