BILL SUMMARY

Legislation: Senate Bill 1091, P.N. 1277
Sponsor: Senator Browne
Act Amended: Fiscal Code
Topic: Vocational Rehabilitation Fund – allocation of appropriations
Date: June 15, 2011

Summary:

Senate Bill 1091 amends the Fiscal Code to further provide for the allocation of amounts appropriated to the Vocational Rehabilitation Fund. The bill itself does not contain an appropriation.

The legislation provides for the following allocations from the amounts appropriated:

- $2.153 million for a statewide professional service provider association for the blind to provide specialized services and services for prevention of blindness; and
- $0.431 million to provide specialized services and services for prevention of blindness in cities of the first class.

The legislation takes effect immediately.

Existing Law:

The provisions of this bill previously have been enacted annually in the portion of the Fiscal Code dedicated to budget implementation for a specific fiscal year.
