

Kenneth J. Martz, Psy.D., CAS

Kenneth J. Martz is a licensed psychologist and the Special Assistant to the Secretary of the Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He has worked in treatment and management gambling disorders and other addictions for the past 20 years. Dr. Martz has also worked in a variety of settings including outpatient, residential and therapeutic communities.

Dr. Martz has a Masters degree in Clinical Psychology from Loyola College, a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology from the American School of Professional Psychology, Virginia Campus, and Masters of Business Administration from Argosy University. He holds each of the 3 national certifications in gambling treatment. He has a number of publications and international presentations in the addictions treatment field.